

Please do not take the option of satellite radio to have "local market" services. I actually encourage satellite radio to expand those services to news along with traffic and weather. I see great irony in the NAB petitioning congress and the FCC to get this service dropped. If they made a better product for listeners, maybe there wouldn't be a market for satellite radio.